First Generation

1. John BOOHER was born 8 May 1773 in Washington Co. Md.. He died 9 Jan 1860 in Wayne Twp. Mont. Co. Ohio and was buried Jan 1860 in Shearer Cemetery, Wayne Township, Montgomery Co. Ohio.

1 NAME John /BOOHER/, Sr.

Source: Found reference that the home was built ca. 1817. However, one of the times it was a resteraunt, it was called, "The Old House Inn". I have an old xerox copy that the owner sent to me that was attached to the menus. He copied and sent it to me. The following is what was printed on the menu.

" It was in the year 1813 that John and Elizabeth Booher decided to settle in these parts and purchased 160 acres of barren wilderness 4 miles north of Dayton, Ohio. The area, at the time was inhabited mainly by Indians, mostly friendly, who often bartered goods with their white neighbors. In spite of a bitter winter and roving wolf packs, John Booher built a sturdy two-story home consisting of five rooms. The bricks used were all made on the farm. Some of the walls, 18 inches thick, still remain of the original structure. Also, the lovely, inviting front entrance and door which grace the present structure are part of the original house that John built. Through the years, nine additional rooms were added to the original house. The barn was constructed with mammoth hand-hewn beans pegged together. (Barn was destroyed in 1963)."

John married (MRIN:1149) Elizabeth CRULL, daughter of Peter Michael CRULL and Elizabeth UNKNOWN (MRIN:3080), about 1794 in Washington Co. Md.. Elizabeth was born 30 Jul 1772 in Washington Co. PA.. She died 30 Aug 1865 in Wayne Twp. Mont. Co. Ohio and was buried Sep 1865 in Shearer Cemetery, Wayne Township, Montgomery Co. Ohio.
